

Prayers for Bangladesh

2 January 2012

Gracious God and loving Father, we lift before you Babu, an eleven-year-old boy who for three years has lived at the Komlapur Rail Station in Dhaka, Bangladesh. Without parents or home, he sleeps wherever he can find a sheltered spot in the station or on the street. He owns nothing. When he earns enough money carrying luggage for train passengers, he buys a meal on the roadside or pays to bathe at the public rest room. Lord, look upon Babu and every child who does not have a home, a father to hold their hand, a mother to kiss them goodnight, or a pillow upon which to rest their head. Have mercy upon these, your children, in the name of your Son, Jesus Christ, we pray. Amen.
